

EMERGENCY RULE

Emergency Rule closing a portion of City of Boulder Parks and Recreation's land in the area of Little Dry Creek, west of the Boulder Reservoir, and west of 51st street, from May 15 thru Sept. 10, 2014, for the protection of nesting Northern Harriers

1. No person shall enter the Parks and Recreation lands west of 51st street, south and east of the Eagle Trail, and to the northern property boundary. It is an affirmative defense to a charged violation of this rule that the defendant acted with authorization of the City Manager for public land management, wildlife management, search and rescue, or public safety purposes.
2. To the extent only of any conflict, this rule supersedes any conflicting rules or parts of rules.
3. This rule covers all land shown on the accompanying marked map. Specification on the map of one or more features on the map shall not limit the rule to those features alone.

EMERGENCY RULE

EMERGENCY RULE

The Adopting Authority establishes this rule to for the protection of nesting Northern Harriers.

Legal Authority: Title 1, Chapter 4 and Section 8-3-3, B.R.C. 1981

As Adopting Authority, I find that the public health, safety or welfare requires immediate effectiveness of the above rule for the following reasons:

Northern Harriers, a Boulder County listed species of special concern has established a nesting site in the area.

Approved as to form and legality for immediate adoption on _____ (date).

_____ (signature), (Assistant/Deputy) City Attorney.

Approved and adopted by City Manager or delegate on _____ (date).

_____ (signature), _____ (title),

Adopting Authority.

Three copies of the Emergency rule filed with City Clerk and effective immediately on _____ (date).

Notice publication date (30 day comment period) in the Daily Camera:

_____ (date).

Final rule approved and adopted with/without change after considering public comment on

_____ (date) by City Manager or delegate _____ (signature),

_____ (title), ("Adopting Authority").

Final rule re-filed with City Clerk and continued in effect on _____ (date)

EMERGENCY RULE

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

As Adopting Authority, the City of Boulder City Manager has adopted an emergency rule. The general subject matter of the rule is:

Closing a portion of City of Boulder Parks and Recreation's land in the area of Little Dry Creek, west of the Boulder Reservoir, and west of 51st street, from May 15 thru Sept. 10, 2014, for the protection of nesting Northern Harriers. The area will be posted and monitored. Trespass violations may result in 90 days in jail and/or a $1,000 fine.

Copies of the rule are available for public review at Central Records at the Municipal Building, 1777 Broadway, 2nd floor.

The Adopting Authority has adopted the rule, which is effective immediately, to protect the public health, safety or welfare because:

Northern Harriers, a Boulder County listed species of special concern has established a nesting site in the area.

Direct written comments to:

Joy Master, Conservation Ecologist, City of Boulder Parks & Recreation, 3198
Broadway, Boulder, CO 80304

For more information visit: www.boulderrez.org or call (303) 413- 7261. The Adopting Authority will consider written public comments for 30 days after publication of this notice before issuing a final rule.